Sources of information

HUSBAND - William Pool POPE

Death certificate lists age as 87 and birth year as 1826. Shown to have been a resident of the "State Insane Hospital" for 32 years, 7 months and resident of Mississippi for 87 years. Cause of death shown as mental insufficiency with contributing factor of senility. Burial in asylum cemetery. According to information obtained by Shirley Harrison, the asylum cemetery was used as a dump during construction of the adjoining hospitals. Apparently a few headstones were found in 1979 but William Pope was not one of them. A 1990 newspaper article indicates all headstones were since removed.

The records from the "State Insane Hospital" indicate that William P. Pope was admitted on 26 Sept. 1880 from Attala County. Relative or Guardian listed as B.A. Guess, Rogers, Texas. Final discharge April 19, 1913 at death. Under column "Returned or Discharged" is entry "Mr. A.W. Gibson(?), Rogers, Texas."

1910 Census lists W.P. Pope as patient in "Insane Hospital" on North State Street, Jackson, Hinds County, Mississippi. Shown as a married 79 year old white male born in Alabama. Place of parents birth shown as unknown.

1900 Census lists William P. Pope as patient in "State Insane Hospital" in Jackson, Hinds Co. Mississippi. Listed as a married 69 year old white male born in Miss. Parents shown as born in Ga. and N.C.

1880 Census lists William P. Pope (age 49), residing in Attala Co. Miss. with wife Delia E. (age 25) and six children (ages 1 to 9). Also in household was Daniel W. Ellington (age 23) listed as "Cousin". William Pope was shown to be "Maimed, Crippled, Bedridden, or otherwise disabled". His place of birth is shown as Alabama and his parents place of birth as S.C.

1870 census lists William Pope, wife Delia (age 18) and son Dave (age 1 month) as residing in Winston Co. Miss. His birthplace was listed as Miss.

1869 Marriage Records of Winston Co., Miss., list a W.P. Pope as the "Bondsman" for the marriage of William Ellington (X) to Miss Sarah Gordon, 21 July, 1869; Book 4a, Pg. 412."

1850 census for Lowndes Co. Miss. lists a William Pope, a 20 year old laborer, born in Alabama, on the farm of an "Alford Perkins". The next farm on the census sheet shows the head to be Cullen Pope, a 43 year old "Planter" born in Georgia. Also in the household were Temperance A., a 40 year old female born in Tenn., three persons named Akins and four Pope children ranging in age from one to twelve. The Lowndes Co. marriage records, Book 2, Page 269, reportedly contain a marriage certificate as follows: "Pope, C.(Cullen)(appears to be groom) & (Temperance) T.A. Ackins)."

The full name William Pool Pope comes from the death certificate of Cullen Daniel Pope obtained from the Oregon Health Dept. It appears that the info on the certificate could have been provided by someone in Texas, possibly Delia Guess. It shows William's birth place as Winston Co. Miss.

Margaret McQuary Pope relates: "In the summer of 1949, Dick Pope and I took Homer T. and Rosa Pope to Mississippi and in Kosciusko we picked up an old man that Mr. Pope knew. He said he knew where the Pope's lived and took us out in the country. Dick and Mr. Pope walked to the house where they had lived. I asked the old gentleman about the elder Pope and Homer said 'Shut up and say no more'; that was the end of the conversation."

WIFE - Adelia ELLINGTON

1880 Miss. census lists Delia E. Pope, age 25, born in Miss., living in the household of William P. Pope in Attala Co. Miss. Also in the household was Daniel W. Ellington, age 23, also born in Miss. Parents place of birth is shown as Georgia.

1870 Miss census shows Delia (age 18) in Winston Co. Miss with husband William Pope and son Dave (age one month).

Sources of Information

1860 Attala Co. Miss census lists "Adelia" with father Pleasant and mother Rachael.

Death Certificate of Cullen Daniel Pope shows mother Delia Ellington born in Ottala Co. Wis. Should probably be Attala Co. Miss.

Some of the information was obtained from "Guest/Guess and Related Families" by Mrs. C.A. Martin. According to Mrs. Martin, the 1900 Bell County Census listed 7 children of Bailey Allen and Delia Guess; also in the household was Mamie A. Pope, born in Miss. Census states Mrs. Guess was mother of 13 children with twelve living in 1900.

CHILD 1 - David William POPE

1880 census of Attala Co. Miss lists David W. Pope, age 9, living in household of William P. Pope, age 49, Delia E. Pope, age 25, five younger children, and a Daniel W. Ellington, age 23, "cousin" to William Pope.

1870 census of Winston Co. Miss lists Dave Pope, age one month, in household of William Pope, age 38, and Delia Pope, age 18.

CHILD 2 - Hugh R. POPE

1880 census of Attala Co. Miss. lists Hugh R. Pope, age 7, in household of William P. Pope.

1900 census list him at age 28 residing in the household of his brother, Homer T. Pope in Bell Co.

Margaret McQuary Pope relates that around 1920 Hugh Pope left the home of Homer T. Pope on his way to California with other men to work. When he was not heard from, the family was able to trace his movements as far as El Paso, Texas. Nothing else was ever heard from or about him.

CHILD 3 - Cullen POPE

1880 census lists Cullen D. Pope, age 5, residing in house of his father, William P. Pope in Attala Co. Miss.

1900 census lists him as boarder in the household of Columbus J. Goolsby in Bell County. His age is shown as 26.

Cullen went to Oregon, year unknown, to work. He died there and his body was returned to Rogers, Texas for burial. Although he died in Portland, the death certificate names Veronia, a logging town approximately 30 miles northwest of Portland, in answer to "Where was disease contracted".

Death certificate lists place of birth as Ottala Co. Wis. It is assumed that this was a typo, probably caused by misreading the letter which transmitted the info to the hospital or mortician for filing. It is apparent from the certificate that the medical information was hand written. However, the info which would have had to be supplied by a relative was typed. This info was probably provided by his mother, Delia. The year of his birth is illegible but appears to be 1875 or 1876. By the 1880 census, the correct year would be 1875. This, however, is only 6 months before the birth of his brother, Homer T.

Pope. The headstone in Rogers Cemetery lists birth date as Jan. 27, 1873. By the 1900 census, the year would have been 1874.

CHILD 4 - Homer Thomas POPE

1880 Attala Co. Miss census lists Homer T. Pope, age 4, in household of William P. Pope.

It is not known if Homer T. Pope married Rosa Lee Rice in Texas, Alabama or Mississippi. In these records, it is assumed that they were married in Mumford, Alabama.

CHILD 5 - Mamie A. POPE

1880 Attala Co. Miss census lists "Mary A.", age 3, in household of William P. Pope.

According to Guest/Guess and Related Families" by Mrs. C.A. Martin, Mamie A. Pope was shown as residing in the B.A. Guess home at the time of the 1900 Bell County Census. Her father's birthplace is shown as Alabama and her mother's as Mississippi.

Marriage info from marriage certificates from Bell Co. TX.

CHILD 6 - Bert Robert POPE

1880 census, Attala Co. Miss - "Roberert" B. Pope, age 1, listed in household of William P. Pope.

1900 census, Bell County, Texas - "Burt" Pope listed as boarder in the household of James L. Greathouse.

1910 census, Bell County, Texas - B.R. Pope listed as head of household in Bell Co. with wife Lela and two children.

Death Certificate lists birth place as Meridian, Miss. However, this may be incorrect since all of the older children were born in Attala County. The family was residing in Attala County in Sept. 1880 when the census was taken; he was one year old at that time.
